25 TO THE HONORABLE MARTIN R. BARASH, U.S BANKRUPTCY JUDGE AND ALL OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES:

26 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that the Law Office of Sevan Gorginian (the “Firm”) moves 27 for an order permitting withdrawal as counsel (“Motion”) for defendant Lusine C. Dokuzyan 28 (“Defendant”) in the adversary case. This Motion is brought under LBR 2091-1(a)(2), which permits the Firm to withdraw as counsel with consent through a substitution of attorney form. Attached as Exhibit A is a copy of the substitution of attorney form.

The Firm seeks to withdraw because the representation is leading counsel, Sevan Gorginian, to experience significant loss of income and time in this representation.
Furthermore, under California State Bar Rule 1.16(b)(6), the lawyer may withdraw if the client knowingly and freely assents to termination of the representation. See also Rule 3-700(C)(5) and (6).¹ This has occurred as evidenced by the attached in Exhibit A. There exists no prejudice nor imminent pressure on the Defendant at this time for the Firm to withdraw as discussed below.

This Motion is based upon this Notice of Motion, the Motion, the declaration of Sevan Gorginian, and the records filed in this case. The Motion is filed pursuant to LBR 9013-1(p)(4), which provides for granting of the Motion without a hearing. The Motion and declaration are attached. Pursuant to California Rules of Professional Conduct, the Firm has provided ample notice to the Debtor that it will seek to withdraw and Debtor is aware of the difficulty of appearing without counsel.

If any party seeks to file an opposition to this Motion, they must do so within no later than fourteen 14 days after the date stated on the proof of service (not excluding Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays). A copy of the response or opposition must be served on the Firm, the Office of the U.S. Trustee and any other necessary parties. If an opposition is filed, the Court may set a hearing with the Firm giving proper notice of such hearing date.

Date: November 7, 2022

Respectfully submitted,

Sevan Gorginian, Esq.

I.

¹ Rule 3-700(c): a Member may not withdraw unless such request or withdrawal is because (5) the client knowingly and freely assents to the termination of the employment or (6) the member believes in good faith....that the tribunal will find the existence of other good cause for withdrawal.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Defendant filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy on March 12, 2022. The Firm appeared with the Defendant at two extensive meeting of creditor sessions with the Chapter 7 Trustee and Plaintiff Hovanes Tonoyan ("Plaintiff"). The Firm fully represented the Defendant in her bankruptcy case, including, several communications with the Chapter 7 Trustee, the United States Trustee and Plaintiff. The Firm prepared and filed a Motion for Protective Order (Docket 20), which the Court granted (Docket 33).

The Firm is very sympathetic to the Defendant because she is an innocent, 26 year old, who has been intimidated by the Plaintiff for a $11,000 loan that she could not payback. The Firm charged the Defendant a very low legal fee of $1,362 (plus $338 filing fee) for the bankruptcy case. This was partially paid by her family members. On June 24, 2022, Plaintiff filed his adversary complaint containing a long list of causes of action. He is seeking to deny Defendant's discharge and except his debt from discharge as well. On behalf of Defendant, the Firm prepared and filed a motion to dismiss the case (Docket 34). The Defendant opposed (Docket 11) and the Firm filed a reply on behalf of the Defendant (Docket 12). The Firm attended the hearing as well on August 31, 2022. The Firm also engaged in a lengthy Rule 26(a) meet and confer with the Plaintiff and drafted the joint status report (Docket 10). The Firm prepared and uploaded the Order granting in part, denying in part the Motion to Dismiss and Setting Deadlines (Docket 15). See Exhibit B for a copy of the Order. The Plaintiff was ordered to file his first amended complaint by October 12, 2022, but he did not do so – presumably because the parties were engaging in settlement communications.

Following the hearing on the Motion to Dismiss, the Firm met with Defendant in good faith via GoogleMeet Video to discuss the case and entertain possibility of settlement. The Firm spent about 30 minutes explaining to pro se Plaintiff the lengthy road ahead of the adversary proceeding and the necessary pleadings and next steps (i.e. discovery, motions to compel, pretrial motions, pretrial stipulations and trial). The Firm was able to convince the Plaintiff that settlement would be in everyone's best interest.

The Firm discussed with the client, Defendant, and negotiations followed. Fortunately, and to everyone's best interest, the parties agreed to the basic terms. Not to divulge private settlement communications, but the Plaintiff agreed to accept a certain amount (estimate 80% of the debt he believes he is owed) in monthly payments. The terms

1 included a provision that this amount would be nondischargeable and if the Defendant
2 breached the settlement agreement, then the Plaintiff would apply for an automatic 3 nondischargeable judgment amount for a set amount. In exchange, the Plaintiff would 4 stipulate to dismiss the adversary proceeding.

5 The Firm, being mindful the parties are in pro per, took the initiative to prepare the 6 settlement agreement and joint stipulation to dismiss. These documents were sent to 7 Plaintiff who reviewed made redline edits and returned them. The Firm incorporated some 8 of the changes and prepared the final version for all parties signatures. The Defendant 9 signed. The Firm was waiting on the Plaintiff to sign the settlement agreement and 10 stipulation to dismiss. Unfortunately, Plaintiff began demanding unnecessary language to 11 be included in the settlement agreement or stipulation to dismiss. Plaintiff wanted, what 12 appeared to be, a reaffirmation agreement as well. This was what caused the end of the 13 Firm's efforts to finalize the settlement because it became clear the Plaintiff was merely 14 playing games and was not serious of settling after all.

15 The Firm, having expended nearly 15 to 20 hours on this case (both the bankruptcy 16 and adversary combined), with very little compensation – leaves the Firm in a position to 17 withdraw.² The Firm has been extremely patient and courteous in dealing with the Plaintiff 18 and the Defendant in this trivial dispute over a $11,000 debt involving former friends. The 19 Defendant does not have the financial capability to retain the Firm at its full retainer amount.
20 Nevertheless, the Firm would never take, for example, a $10,000 retainer to defend an 21 adversary case involving $11,000. The Firm was merely being courteous to the pro se 22 parties. Due to Plaintiff's last minute decision to not sign the agreed-to settlement 23 agreement, it has left with the Firm with no choice but to withdraw and allow the Plaintiff 24 and Defendant to resolve their differences at mediation.

25 The Firm met with the Defendant, in person, and explained the predicament. The 26 Defendant fully acknowledges and understands what the withdrawal means. She signed 27 a voluntary substitution of attorney form (Exhibit A).

28

2² Defendant's sister has paid the Firm a small amount of money on account of the 20-30 hours expended on this adversary case. Factoring in $350/hour, the Firm is entitled to $10,500 but given the dollar amount in dispute, it would be unconscionable to charge this amount to Defendant. Thus, as a courtesy, the Firm did most of the work pro bono to get this case to settle, which is the best solution and it is what Plaintiff himself wanted as well when he agreed to the terms of the settlement.

2 Pursuant to LBR 2091-1(a), coupled with California Rules of Professional 3 Resolution 3-700, cause exists for the Firm to withdraw because the Defendant-client 4 knowingly and freely assent to the termination of employment and the Firm believes in 5 good faith, that the Court will find the existence of other good cause is present for its 6 withdrawal. Such good cause is present because the Firm has expended 15-20 hours 7 without fair compensation (at the Firm's choosing), the Firm tried very hard to finalize the 8 settlement agreement that Plaintiff agreed to and requiring the Firm to continue the 9 representation would lead to significant loss of time and income for the Firm. The Firm has 10 numerous other clients that need the Firm's attention. Being a sole practitioner, the Firm 11 can no longer represent the Defendant and divest its attention and resources from other 12 paying clients. The Firm genuinely meant to offer its pro bono services in good faith but 13 as the idiom goes: "no good deed goes unpunished."

14 Pursuant to Rule 3-700(A)(2), the Firm has taken steps to minimize any prejudice
15 to the Debtor, as discussed above, by notifying the Debtor of the Firm's intent to withdraw 16 and preparing the joint status report for the Defendant as well that is due November 9, 17 2022. There is no imminent deadline other than Defendant having to file her response to 18 Plaintiff's first amended complaint (if necessary). Defendant was not left in the dark or 19 alone. The Firm respectfully asks the Court to send the parties to mediation.

20 The Firm requests that all further notices, pleadings, process and other papers 21 addressed to the Defendant be by mail and email to the following:

29 In conclusion, counsel respectfully requests the Motion be granted and an order be 30 entered approving its withdrawal as counsel of record for Debtor.

DECLARATION OF SEVAN GORGINIAN

1. I am defendant's bankruptcy attorney and proposed former counsel in this pending
2 adversary case. My office is located at 450 N. Brand Blvd. Suite 600 Glendale, CA
3 91203. I am over 18 years old and hereby acknowledge this is testimony under oath 4 and I have personal knowledge of the facts below. If called to testify, I could and 5 would competently testify to the same in open court.
6. I wanted to write this declaration in support of my motion to withdraw and to update
7 the Court with the latest events that have occurred since the prior status conference 8 on August 31, 2022.
9. On behalf of the defendant, I had filed a motion to dismiss the plaintiff's case. The 10 plaintiff's complaint contains numerous causes of action. The Court denied my 11 client's motion to dismiss as to certain causes of action and dismissed as to others 12 with leave to amend. Attached as Exhibit A is a copy of the Order (Docket 15).
13. Both the Plaintiff and Defendant were present during the hearing and they heard the 14 Court's comments on the record.
15. The Plaintiff was to file his first amended complaint by October 12, 2022 and the 16 Defendant to file her answer by October 26, 2022.
17. This dispute between the parties is for nearly $11,000. To facilitate a settlement 18 and avoid wasting the parties and Court's time, I began settlement discussions with 19 the Plaintiff.
20. I held a 30 minute video call with the Plaintiff to provide him some guidance on the 21 long road he has ahead of him in this adversary. I explained to him the entire 22 adversary proceeding process and what comes next and what pleadings would have 23 to be filed (discovery, pretrial stipulations, trial, etc.). He and I had a lengthy and 24 cordial communication. After explaining the long road ahead in this adversary, I told 25 Plaintiff that I would get my then-client, the Defendant, to offer a settlement.
26. After speaking with my client, I began to facilitate settlement communications 27 between the parties. Finally we agreed on a settlement amount, which is nearly 28

80% of what the Plaintiff believes he is owed, to be paid over monthly payments.

2 Keeping in mind I am not being fully compensated for my time in these matters, I 3 still volunteered to then draft the settlement agreement because I know Plaintiff is 4 not an attorney and may not be versed in the necessary language.

5 9. I drafted the settlement agreement outlining the terms that both Plaintiff and 6 Defendant agreed. Plaintiff sent me redline edits to which I incorporated some of it 7 and created the final PDF version. As part of the settlement agreement, I also 8 drafted the "Joint Stipulation to Dismiss the Adversary." I sent that to Plaintiff as 9 well. The goal was pursuant to the settlement agreement, Defendant was going to 10 pay a certain amount over time and if she defaults then Plaintiff will get an automatic 11 nondischargeable judgment of a larger amount. In exchange, the Plaintiff and 12 Defendant were going to sign the Joint Stipulation to Dismiss the Adversary. Plaintiff 13 had several days to review and sign.

14 10. Defendant had already signed the settlement agreement and we were waiting on 15 Plaintiff to sign, so I can then file the proper documents and dismiss the case and 16 have the parties move forward with the payment plan on the settled debt.

17 11. Unfortunately, Plaintiff Mr. Tonoyan then began to send email after email about 18 other requirements which delayed the process. The last straw was he wanted, from 19 what I believe to be a reaffirmation agreement signed. I had told him the settlement 20 agreement was sufficient. He had reviewed the settlement agreement, made edits 21 and had plenty of time to review. He agreed to the terms and all we needed was to 22 sign and finalize.

23 12. On November 2, 2022, Plaintiff sent me yet another lengthy email which I reviewed.
24 He began to ask for different documents and language in the order that I did not 25 believe was necessary. That is when I decided my time is valuable and I am done 26 engaging in this petty fight between the parties. I have exchanged about 50 emails, 27 spent a lot of time on this matter involving a dispute between friends for $11,000. I 28 have too many clients to service and my kindness to facilitate a settlement was exhausted. These lengthy emails takes 10-15 minutes to review and respond.

2 13. I told my client, of what had transpired and that unfortunately Mr. Tonoyan refused
3 to sign at the end. That is when I asked my client to sign the substitution of attorney 4 form. She fully understood what it meant and why I was moving on.

5 14. I have spent well over 15-20 hours on this case and the bankruptcy case combined.
6 I have other clients I need to attend to and all I wanted was to facilitate a settlement 7 and move forward. I cannot go forward in this case because to do so will require a 8 lot of my time (which is unpaid) and I would not charge my client the typical $10,000 9 retainer deposit because it would be unconscionable since the case dispute is for 10 much less. My client's sister paid me a very small amount on account of the balance 11 I am owed in the adversary. My client does not owe a balance to me. I did this 12 adversary to help to quickly facilitate a settlement but the Plaintiff is not taking the 13 settlement (which he agreed to in terms) seriously.

14 15. I helped my client fill out her portion of the joint status report which I sent to my client 15 on November 5, 2022. The burden of proof and tasks are in Plaintiff's hand as he 16 is the moving party. I believe Mr. Tonoyan did not file his first amended complaint 17 because we were in the middle of settling. Unfortunately, it did not pan out as I had 18 hoped. My client will appear at the status conference. I respectfully ask the Court 19 to remind the parties to be courteous to one another. My client is very afraid of Mr.
20 Tonoyan. She cries in my office when I speak about him and his efforts. She is 21 very afraid of him and I believe communications should be kept to email unless they 22 go to mediation. I have advised my client to get a restraining order if she believes 23 she needs one.

24 I attest under the penalty of perjury in the state of California that the above is true 25 and correct to the best of my knowledge. Executed on November 4, 2022.
